If your glasses are "cloudy" or look like glasses that have contained milk, this can be the result of using too much detergent or rinse aid. It is important to use the right amount of dishwasher salt, dishwasher detergent and rinse aid. It is also important to wash your glasses using the correct dishwasher temperature. All erik bagger denmark glass products are dishwasher safe on the glass programme.

Erik Bagger Harmony cutlery from erik bagger a/s is made from stainless steel. However, rust spots may occur if the cutlery does not receive the correct treatment and handling. Rust spots can occur if stainless steel cutlery is washed with items not made of stainless steel - or with already rusted items. Rust spots can also be found when unwashed cutlery has stood for too long coated with food, so always remember to rinse your cutlery before washing up.

The history

At erik bagger denmark we would like to help to eradicate boring design and bring new and exciting life into everyday life. We do this by developing, producing and marketing tomorrow's design classics and fresh news in a good quality and affordable prices. We sell our products worldwide, with Denmark as our largest market. Our design expressions are inspired by the timeless clean Scandinavian design with an "eb-twist". We develop new products together with some of Denmark's most talented designers such as Erik Bagger, Maria Berntsen and Troels Seidenfaden. We continually welcomes and are open for input from young, aspiring designers.

We respect our customers and involve them in design work, because their opinion is important to us. On Facebook we have dialogue, news and competitions, with those who want to get involved in our work. We use social media as a guide to how well we do and to what design interests the world outside. We use all these impulses and substantial input as the innovative development of the concept of Scandinavian design. erik bagger denmark a/s was founded by designer Erik Bagger and Frederik Oluf Brønnum in 2003. Today Imerco Group's is the principal shareholder in erik bagger a/s. Imerco is a subsidiary of M. Goldschmidt Holding A/S, owned by Mikael Goldschmidt.

We proudly present our designers

Erik Bagger

Erik Bagger has long been an established name as one of Scandinavia's most successful top designers. He is the man behind most of the products, where the greatest success is the glass series that was designed for The Opera restaurant's in Copenhagen. The glasses are also used at MoMa in New York. Erik Bagger wants to create future classics in form of products that consumers becomes more and more satisfied with during the years. This naturally puts demands to both quality and design and Erik Bagger through both form and function on all of its designs. This makes the design timeless and the quality top notch, so the product can follow the consumer for many years. The consumer is "king" in Erik Bagger's universe.

Seidenfaden Design Copenhagen

Since 2002 Seidenfaden Design Copenhagen has specialized in developing and producing designs for known lifestyle products around the world. Among others Weber, Fiskars and Zwilling. The award-winning design company is also behind more of erik bagger denmark's unique products, among these the beautiful Chill series, with its modern interpretation of a classic styling, which will fit beautifully into any home of the design conscious family.

Maria Berntsen

For 20 years, Maria Berntsen has been one of Scandinavia's most prominent female designers. She has won several international awards and her designs are exhibited in Milan, London and Frankfurt. Maria Berntsen has designed for the major design houses such as Georg Jensen and Holmegaard. Recently she has designed Arena and Magic for erik bagger denmark.

Designit

Designit is an international strategic design partner for a wide range of global brands across industries. Designit has a strong base in product design, which goes back to the original foundation when of the company back in 1991. During the years it has resulted in many internationally awarded designs. Designit has created designs for many well-known lifestyle and branded manufacturers. Designit is currently represented in 9 countries.

Marlene Brønnum

Marlene Brønnum, born in 1982, is a educated designer from The Margrethe School in Copenhagen. With preference in her background in design for the clothing industry, Marlene gets much inspiration from the fashion world, and is therefore constantly updated on the latest colors and trends. Marlene Brønnum can work in all materials from textiles, ceramics to glass and steel.
